Understanding the Nation of Gods and Earths

The Nation of Gods and Earths (NGE), founded in 1964 by Clarence 13X, is a cultural movement that emerged from the Nation of Islam. It promotes self-knowledge, empowerment, and the understanding of universal truths through unique teachings and symbolism. Central to its philosophy is the concept that black men are "Gods" and black women are "Earths," reflecting a view of divinity and human potential. The NGE emphasizes education, critical thinking, and a distinct linguistic system known as Supreme Mathematics and Supreme Alphabet, which are tools for interpreting reality and communicating complex ideas.

The 120 lessons are a fundamental educational tool within this community, designed to impart the core principles and knowledge that shape the identity and worldview of members.
