WHAT IS CONVERSION THERAPY IN HINDI ?

Conversion therapy, also known as reparative therapy, is a discredited and harmful practice that aims to change a person's sexual orientation or gender identity. It is based on the false belief that being gay, lesbian, or transgender is a mental disorder that needs to be "cured." This therapy often involves a combination of psychological, medical, and behavioral interventions, many of which are unethical and can cause significant harm to the individual.
